

The Today Show Chopper Built by the “Chopper Chicks Crew” will benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County

On July 21st , Saturday edition of the NBC Today Show, the “Chopper Chicks Crew” built a motorcycle live in the heart of New York City at Rockefeller Center, right outside the NBC studios. The completed motorcycle valued at $30,000 has been designed and painted with the Today Show logo to be auctioned off until August 14th on Charity Folks at www.charityfolks.com The motorcycle is set to make a tour stop at Sturgis Bike Week August 6-12 at Tucker Rocky Bikers Choice Booth. All proceeds will benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County.

The bike kit was donated by Tucker Rocky Bikers Choice to the “Chopper Chick Crew”. The all women “Chopper Chick Crew” consists of team leader Athena Ransom of Vagabond Chopper Co., who has been around motorcycles her entire life and riding since she was seven; Joann Bortles of Crazy Horse Painting, an award winning painter whose work has been featured in magazines such as Easyriders, Ironworks, and American Iron; Jayme Gray from Pussycat Choppers, an avid motorcyclist with a degree from MMI and extensive V-Twin experience; Katie Putnam from Mitch Bergeron’s, another MMI degree holder with tons of mechanical experience; and Sarah Lyon from Magnum Cycles in Kentucky, a creative, self taught mechanic.”
